What is Courage to Call?

Courage to Call is dedicated to helping current and former service members, including those who served in Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. This dedication extends to military families and loved ones.

All Courage to Call staff have been in the military or have been military family members. They have firsthand knowledge of the rigors of the military and military family life, constant deployments and transitioning out of the military.

They are committed to helping veterans and their loved ones get the services and assistance they need and deserve.

They can help you find supportive information, access and referrals to services throughout San Diego County.
What does Courage to Call provide?

Our veteran-staffed 24/7 Helpline provides free, confidential information, guidance and referrals. When you need assistance, call 2-1-1 to arrange meetings with other veterans and family support partners. Courage to Call can help you identify next steps and develop short-term personal and professional plans.

Types of assistance include:
- Employment services
- Food, housing and shelter
- Rent and utility assistance
- Counseling services
- Family and legal resources
- VA and other benefits and information
- Veterans transition services
- Low-cost or no-cost recreation

Who does Courage to Call serve?

Courage to Call is a countywide San Diego program serving:

Individuals who have served in any branch of the Military, Reserves or National Guard regardless of their discharge status, and those who have left the military and need help finding support and services.

Families and Loved Ones who are concerned about the emotional health and well-being of those who have served in the Military, Reserves or National Guard.

Community organizations, agencies, and providers that want training to improve cultural awareness and understanding for serving those with a military or military family background.
